Re: Cardiology Expert

Dear Guy:

I would like to take the opportunity to recommend Jonathan Marmur, M.D. as an expert in the field of interventional cardiology should you or your firm ever have the need for such an expert. Dr. Marmur is the Director of Cardiac Catheterization and Interventional Cardiology Program at the University of New York Health Sciences Center at Brooklyn. His stellar curriculum vitae pales in comparison to his professionalism and expertise as an expert witness. Dr. Marmur recently served as an expert witness for us in peer review proceeding involving the medical staff privileges of an invasive cardiologist and was invaluable to our defense of the physician.

We trust that, should you ever have a case that requires an expert in the field of interventional cardiology and angioplasty, Dr. Marmur will serve your interests well.

Sincerely,

GILBERT F. GANUCHEAU, JR.
